

Dear {Goes By},

The Shearman & Sterling Alumni Newsletter is an opportunity to connect with fellow alumni and learn about what's happening at the firm. In this edition, you will meet six alumni who combined their talents and experiences at Shearman & Sterling to build exceptional careers. Their professional paths and insights are inspiring. I encourage you to take a few moments to read their stories.

As you know, we recently announced our planned merger with Allen & Overy. This combination will bring together the market leadership, elite offerings and iconic brands of both firms, providing unparalleled service to our clients. The feedback we have received from clients and alumni has been resoundingly positive, and we will continue to keep you informed as the merger progresses. In the meantime, you can read more about the merger here.

This year also marks Shearman & Sterling's 150th anniversary. I am filled with immense pride for the legacy we have all built together and am excited for our future. The remarkable achievements and dedication of our alumni have played a vital role in shaping Shearman & Sterling. As we write the next chapter of our firm's history, we are grateful for your continued engagement and support.
